

DAY wins ITF
World Ranking
Event

BC Players
named to Jr.
Davis/Fed Cup
Team

$15K Pro Tennis
Tourney coming to Kelowna

Register for 19th
Annual Coquitlam
Open

Tuesday, April 14, 2012

Day wins ITF World Ranking Event

After a strong performance at the Canadian U18 Jr. Nationals, Vancouver's Alexander Day won the 30th All-Canadian Championships ITF Jr. World Ranking Circuit event in Burlington, Ontario. Day started the event as the #15 seed in an international field that included players from Europe, Asia, Mexico, the United States, and Canada. Day defeated Oakville, Ontario native Jesse Flores 6-2, 6-3 in the championship match.

Day went onto to pair with Vancouver's Patrick Hall to reach the doubles final falling to the Canadian duo of Hernandez and Shulman 6-1, 6-3. Day was also a doubles finalist at the Canadian U18 Junior Nationals Championships the previous week.

Go to tournament link for full results.

Axis Magazine Blog

Tennis Canada

Contact Us

